

6th Grade Summer Reading Assignment
The Watsons Go To Birmingham
By Christopher Paul Curtis

Instructions:

Please compose a 100-word response that addresses the following prompt. Please ensure that your response adheres to all proper grammatical and punctuation guidelines. Your response should be handwritten.

Curtis wrote this book in 1995, but it's set in 1963. Why do you think stories like this one are still important for young people to read today? What would be lost if we stopped telling them?

Please submit your response along with any other draft planning work on the first day of class. This assignment will be worth 20 points (1 Quiz Grade) and included in your Q1 Average
